Army ROTC

Ever wondered what it is like to be an Army ROTC Cadet?
Now you can find out while still in High School!

On Thursday, November 10th, you are invited to spend a “Day in the Life of an Army ROTC Cadet” at the University of Illinois by shadowing a current Cadet!

Your day will include:

- Participating in morning Army Physical Training
- Attending University & Military Science classes with a Cadet Mentor
- Participating in the Weekly Military Science Lab
- Opportunities to talk with current cadets in the Army ROTC Battalion!
 - Obtaining some cool SWAG!

If interested, please contact The Military Science Department: (217) 244-1407 or by emailing arotc@illinois.edu or eashwort@illinois.edu by October 31, 2022

We hope to see you then!
